WHY NOT BUY THE CITY PLANT

If They Think It So Much Better Than Having a Private Company Provide Illumination?—Is There Something Back of the Action?

The discussion of the light question has reached that point where the whole city is deeply interested, and any move on the part of anyone connected with the company or its opposition is eagerly watched by taxpayers who know the cost of any change must come from their pockets.

When the movement for a municipal plant began, there was more than one man of good business judgment who shook his head and imagined he saw in it the scheme of some manufacturer for selling the city a complete outfit of electrical machinery. The successive steps of the fight made by Councilman Stewart and the parties behind him have been watched with interest by all public spirited citizens, and the opinion is general, as everyone knows, that the scheme will come to naught if the desire of the public be followed.

When the light company met the demand of the advocates for city ownership, and reduced the price so that no one could justly complain, it was expected that Councilman Stewart would, like all sensible people, exercise his knowledge of business and agree with the other members of council. He continued his clamor, if clamor it can be called, for a new municipal plant, regardless of the offer of the company to sell its property to the city at a fair price.
That is where Mr. Stewart lost friends for his cause, and will continue to lose them until only the little coterie, and a very little one it is, will remain to cry for the construction of a new plant. It would have looked better in the public eye, and would not have hurt the cause of Mr. Stewart, if the people favoring the city entering the business of making light would have said more in favor of their plans and less about the profits of the company. It would, perhaps, have had a tendency to convince some taxpayers that they wanted cheap light more than a new plant; but their oportunity is lost. It is the construction, not the purchase of a system, which seems to be the first object in their plans.

The company have spent a large sum of money, not alone in improving their power house and system of transacting business, but have built up a large trade in the city. This the municipality could never hope to have unless it could provide light for less money, go into the market and upon the same basis compete for business. With the inefficiency always found in institutions controlled by political patronage, the city could not provide a good service at the same money. The light company would be a dangerous rival, and the taxpayers would make up for the deficiency by going down into the depths of their pockets.
It would not be a paying investment.
This competition, and would be the height of folly, a waste of money, for the city to install a plant when one can be purchased. There would be no delay, no confusion, if the city should ever decide upon so senseless a plan as to go into the manufacture of light. It would be business, as business is conducted today, to shut out all competition. Then the private consumer would be compelled to buy from the city, no matter what its service, and the loss upon the taxpayer would not be so heavy.

If Mr. Stewart and the people behind him are sincere in their efforts to give the city even cheaper light than that offered by the Ceramic company, they must adopt the very best method to obtain it. They will be compelled to abandon all their staff and nonsense about installing a new plant, with machinery fresh from the hands of the maker, under pain of being too deeply interested in the plan for the good of the city. If they continue to cry on the lines followed for so many months, the public will ask why they do not turn their arguments in the right direction, and have the city buy the Ceramic plant.
It is first-class in every particular, and it has been known for some time that the company would gladly sell if the city wants to buy, and sell at a price that would stagger even that Indiana concern so anxious to provide East Liverpool with new machines, even though it might be out of the question to operate the municipal plant in connection with the water works.

The NEWS REVIEW is opposed to municipal ownership. That system has been weighed so often in the balance, and found sadly wanting on so many occasions, that this paper believes it would be a dangerous experiment for East Liverpool. It would not be wisdom for this city to dig a hole and plant its money, dollar upon dollar, deep in the depths of the earth; yet that is what it would do if it built a light plant.

BUSINESS FOR THE SQUIRES.

Three Suits Recently Entered in the Courts.

A. H. Clark, assignee, has entered a suit of ejectment before Squire Rose against Mark Gribben. The case will be heard Monday morning.

C. E. Blackmore yesterday entered an attachment suit in the same court against Mrs. Sadie Smith. The case will be heard Friday morning.

Louie Hughes entered suit yesterday against James Hayes for $17.30. The case will be heard Friday morning by Squire Manley.

Tillie L. Miller sues Charles Reed for $73.50 in the court of Squire Manley.

bill. The case will be heard Saturday.

TURNERS WILL NOT COMPETE

Unless Will Hertel Is Allowed to Take Part.

The East Liverpool Turners will not compete at the International Turnfest, to be held in St. Louis next May, unless
Will Hertel be permitted to contest with the local class. Teachers are barred from participating; but as Hertel has not yet become a teacher, the Turners will insist that he be allowed to take part. The boys are confident they will carry off a trophy or two. Will Hertel is expected home from Milwaukee next week.

A RINGING LETTER.

Librarian C. B. Galbraith Writes to the Cuban Junta.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Funds have been pouring into this city to help the Cuban cause, and the people of the city are aroused in favor of the insurgents. A mass meeting has been called to take action on the Cuban Liberty movement.
C. B. Galbraith, librarian of the state library here, has sent a ringing letter to the Cuban junta in New York, explain-

Less Than a Dozen People Went to the Grand.

Last night was a record breaker at the Grand, and when the chart went upstairs there were only 20 cents in the drawer. When it was time for the curtain to rise there were not a dozen people in the house, and it was decided to close the place and the people were given their money. The employees of the house remained for some time, and were shown a large number of the vitascope pictures.

THREE DAYS' SHOOTING.

I. N. Crable Expects to Bring Shots From Pittsburg.

I. N. Crable is arranging to hold a live bird tournament across the river some time during the holidays. He is negotiating with a Milwaukee dealer for 1,000 pigeons, and if they can be secured a shoot of probably three days will be held. The events will be sweepstakes, and many of the best shots of the Beaver valley and Pittsburg are expected to be present.

CHEAP HEAT

If the Street Railway Company Heats Its
Cars by Meter.

Patrons of the street railway company are complaining because the cars are not properly heated, and they think cars should be fitted with stoves instead of electric heaters, which are said to be mere ornaments. A gentleman in a west bound car yesterday hit the nail on the head when he said: "Well, the bill for heating this car would not amount to very much if the company burned by meter."

The Close of Presbytery.

The last meeting of presbytery was held in the Second church, Wellsville, last evening. It was largely attended,
and interesting.

PROF. REED'S LECTURE

How He and the Other Fellow

EXPERIENCE IN CAMP AND BATTLE

The Eloquent Pastor of the Christian Church More Than Met the Expectations of an Audience Remarkable For Its Attention and Interest.

A secret has leaked out. We have learned that Comrade Reed was duly commissioned a lieutenant colonel some years ago in the Grand army. His lecture last night on "How That Other Fellow and I Put Down the Rebellion" abounded in happy hits. He began with some local pleasantries, and then followed the destinies of that other fellow from his enlistment, through his camp life, on the battle field, which he vividly portrayed. The veterans could see it all pass in review before them, for
it was a mirror of their own experience.
His reasons for preserving the memories of war were pointed. Because of tragic page of American history written by soldiers, because of education of our youth
in patriotism, because of the great benefits resulting from the conquered peace.

His tribute to the flag, his picture of the home-sick soldier, his recalling of the force of song to the hearts of patriotism, were all in keeping with the occasion and the theme.
His references of the part he took in the rebellion were modestly presented, and opened a field of thought for soldiers who had watched the signals day after day and night after night. He properly exalted his arm of the service. Feelingly he spoke of the famous message to General Corse by Sherman, "Hold the Fort for I am Coming," and of the reply, which has never been set to music,
"I'll hold till hell freezes."

When temporarily in charge of the signal station at City Point, tall masted vessels in the mouth of the Appomattox intercepted all communication with Ber-munda Hundreds, necessitating morning of the vessels either up or down the river a short distance. He went in his shirt sleeves to the captain of a tug, and asked him to carry him to the boats to have anchors lifted and vessels moored so as to enable them to resume communication. Gruffly the captain spoke: "Who are you?" He told him. Whereupon the captain turned to General Heintzelman, who was passing by, and he shall never forget his remark. Said he, "This here sprig says I must take him to have them boats moored up the river." The general quietly replied, "You had better do it.
He ranks me at the Point." And so it was done. Venturing to the landing, a soldier he had never met before appealed to him for a furlough. He was homesick—homesickness is a disease which killed more than bullets. He told him to apply to his officers. No, they wouldn't do anything for him. He told him neither could he. Said he: "I heard what the general said, and I know a fellow that can make them take up anchors can get me a furlough." He had him go into the church, where they had erected a signal tower, and had him write the story of his life: of his marriage a couple of weeks before enlistment; of leaving a young wife in care of a couple of old folks; of enlistment of the old man whom he had left in charge of the farm; of the condition of farm, fences, etc. He added irreverently a sentence, "For God's sake give this man a furlough." He addressed the envelope in a bold hand and sent it to Abraham Lincoln, president of the United States, Washington, D. C. What was his astonishment one day, as soon thereafter as the transport could get from the Point to Washington and back, to be lifted off his feet by a man down whose cheeks were streaming tears of joy as he said, "I've got it, I've got it!" and showed him the only furlough he ever saw signed by President Lincoln.

He told of his experience of attending church; when he came near being captured by the Johnnies; whilst he was completely so by the smiles of a fair damsel; of the issues of the war, and related how the ideas of men, regarding their country's magnitude, had been enlarged by the war; like that of a young man in southwest Missouri, who, upon
the attainment of his majority, was given a hundred dollars and told to make the best of it. The youth went to St. Louis, spent his money seeing the sights, returned home and told the gawking boys around him that "if this world was as big 'tother way as the way down tew St. Louis, she was a whopper."

Eloquently did he speak of conditions,
had matters been reversed; had victory perched on southern arms; of a disembered republic; of the natural sequence of the doctrine of state's rights.
The picture of the return of the veterans was true to life and enjoyed by all the boys in blue.

Professor Reed was warmly complimented by old soldiers at the close of his speech, and well known veterans, business and professional men, marched
to the pulpit and clasped hands with their comrade, glad to greet and honor
him, and eager to express their pleasure in forming his acquaintance.

At the beginning of the meeting, as Comrade Taggart introduced the speaker
a lady was heard to remark: "There are two magnificent specimens of Uncle Sam's volunteer soldiery."

PAID THEIR TAXES.

Two Suits Entered by the Treasurer Were Withdrawn.

LISBON, Dec. 16.—[Special.]—J. S.
Knoll, a Knox township farmer, made an assignment this morning to W. S.
Potts, who filed bond in the sum of $3,000.

The will of the late Richard Sweat-nam, of East Liverpool, was admitted in probate today.

Mary A. Wernet, of Hanover, and Amelia H. Arter, of this place, have settled the actions in which they are defendants, and Treasurer Cameron the plaintiff. They paid into the treasury the personal taxes for which suit was brought. Mrs. Wernet paid $425, and
Mrs. Arter $143.

The special grand jury began work
this evening.

MARRIED AT PARK.

Two Weddings in the Little Village Today.

Robert Watson and Miss Hattie Tullis, well known people of Park,
of John Lones by Rev. J. V. Finch.
The happy couple will go to housekeeping at once in a home recently built by the groom.

Philander Crawford, of Park, and Miss Rosabell Palmer, of Passadena, Fla., were married at 2 o'clock today at the residence of the groom's father, W.
H. Crawford, by Rev. J. V. Finch.

ONLY SMOKE

But It Took the Department to the First
M. E. Church.

Doctor Huston this morning saw smoke issuing from the roof of the First
M. E. church, and gave the alarm. The department made a good run in spite of the slippery streets, and the Babcocks were speedily taken into the building.
There was no work for them as the smoke came through a crack or two in the chimney. As the wagons turned from Washington into Fifth street they
of Doctor Shay.

East Liverpool People Heard a Good Performance.

A large number of young people from the city last evening attended the presentation of "A Social Outcast" and
"Little Goldie, or the Child of the Camp," by the Clarkson band. The plays were well rendered, and were a source of much amusement to those who attended. Homer Huston played the heroic part, and did it in a manner that would do credit to many professionals.

COLLIDED WITH A TUB.

Burglars Met With Misfortune in a Cook
Street House.

Monday night burglars entered the kitchen of a Cook street residence, but accidentally ran into a tub and awakened the household. The lady of the house screamed and her husband got up and taking his revolver went down stairs, arriving in time to see the thieves disappear over the fence.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Edward Cook Was Struck by a Piece of Iron.

Edward Cook, while cutting tile at the Knowles' pottery last evening, met with a very painful accident. A piece of the iron in the tile flew and struck him in the ball of the left eye. A physician extracted the iron, but it will be several days before the bandage can be removed.

Legislative Committee of Trades Council
Will Talk Light.

Trades council will meet in regular session this evening to transact important business. The legislative committee, to whom the light question was referred, will probably make a report, and the council will take some action on the matter.

Devising Plans.

Since the dissolution of the eastern manufacturers' association, the sanitary pressers are endeavoring to devise plans whereby a scale of wages can be maintained. They fear competition will result in hardship to them.

HUNTING FOR HIS BOY

B. F. Watkins Has Sought
Long For His Son.

The Youth Left a Home of Culture and Refinement in Johnstown, Pa., Because
He Believed It More Manly to Work
Than Attend School.

If Reno Watkins is among the residents of East Liverpool, he should waste no time in shaking the dust of the city from his feet, and hastening to his comfortable home in Johnstown, Pa., where an anxious father and a broken hearted mother mourn him as lost.

There came to the city yesterday an old man. His head was bowed, and his face bore evidences of grief and trouble.
He arrived in the city early in the day,
and visited every boarding house he could find. But one inquiry was on his lips—
"Does Reno Watkins stop here?" In appearance he was gentlemanly. His clothes were of good material, and he looked just what he is, a man who has made enough money in a busy life of half a century or more to live in peace
and comfort the remainder of his days.

The gentleman was B. F. Watkins, late manager of an important department in the Johnson works at Johnstown, Pa. A few months ago his son left home for school, and since that time has not been seen by any of his family. Mr. Watkins sought in every direction for his son without success.
His description was wired all over the country, and many newspapers have published appeals from the father. Not long ago he learned that his son had been seen at the Pittsburg wharf, and had said he was going down the river. Monday night Mr. Watkins received a telegram from a friend in Wellsville saying his son was here under an assumed name. Mr. Watkins hastened to the city, but could not find the boy. He had heard he was among the employees of the bridge, but a diligent search failed to reveal his presence.
After hunting in the two towns, Mr.
Watkins left for home today, hoping that he will be informed if anyone should
by chance hear of his son.

TOO MUCH BUSINESS

For the Case of Doctor Marshall to be Heard Today.

BEAVER, Dec. 16.—[Special.]—A large number of witnesses, ordered here to tell what they know about the prosecution of Dr. R. J. Marshall, have been at the court house today, but the case did not come up this morning. At 3 o'clock this afternoon it did not appear that the matter would today advance farther than the calling of the jury. Mrs. Dawson, the principal witness for the prosecution, who was not at the last trial and whose absence caused the last postponement, will be represented by a
would lose her position if she left it now.

NOT GUILTY.

R. L. Edmonston Says He Can Prove It In Court.

R. L. Edmonston when asked by a NEWS REVIEW man if he would fight the suit for divorce brought by his wife in Fairfield county replied:

"I am not guilty of the charges preferred against me, and will try to prove it, you can rest assured, when the proper time comes."

Mr. Edmonston has many friends in the city who believe the charges are untrue.

New Kilns.

Two of the new decorating kilns which will replace those torn down at the Knowles plant, will be finished tomorrow, and will be in condition for use Friday. There are two more kilns
to be demolished and rebuilt.

The kiln in process of construction at
the Vodrey pottery will be completed by the end of the week.

Going to Be Married.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Robert Bell and Miss Florence Bell daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
W. H. Streets, of Jethro street. The ceremony will be performed at high noon on Christmas. The contracting parties are among the best known and most popular colored people in the city.

Quarantined Two Months.

The family of Frank Hoag, who have been quarantined at their home on Lincoln avenue will probably be released tomorrow. They were quarantined twice,
and have been shut up eight weeks.

Unless Will Hertel Is Allowed to Take Part.

The East Liverpool Turners will not
compete at the International Turnfest, to be held in St. Louis next May, unless
the local class. Teachers are barred from
become a teacher, the Turners will insist
boys are confident they will carry off a

Cuban Junta.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Funds have been
pouring into this city to help the Cuban
aroused in favor of the insurgents. A mass meeting has been called to take action on the Cuban liberty movement.
C. B. Galbraith, librarian of the state library here, has sent a ringing letter to
the Cuban junta in New York, explain-

Grand.

Last night was a record breaker at
drawer. When it was time for the curtain to rise there were not a dozen people in the house, and it was decided to
given their money. The employees of
scope pictures.

I. N. Crable Expects to Bring Shots From Pittsburg.

I. N. Crable is arranging to hold a live bird tournament across the river
some time during the holidays. He is negotiating with a Milwaukee dealer for 1,000 pigeons, and if they can be secured
a shoot of probably three days will be
present.

CHEAP HEAT

Cars by Meter.

cars should be fitted with stoves instead
of electric heaters, which are said to be
mere ornaments. A gentleman in a
west bound car yesterday hit the nail on
meter."

The Close of Presbytery.

The last meeting of presbytery was held in the Second church, Wellsville, last evening. It was largely attended,
and interesting.

PROF. REED'S LECTURE

How He and the Other Fellow

Church More Than Met the Expectations of an Audience Remarkable For Its Attention and Interest.

A secret has leaked out. We have
commissioned a lieutenant colonel some years ago in the Grand army. His lecture last night on "How That Other Fellow and I Put Down the Rebellion"
abounded in happy hits. He began
with some local pleasantries, and then
followed the destinies of that other fellow from his enlistment, through his
vividly portrayed. The veterans could see it all pass in review before them, for
it was a mirror of their own experience.

page of American history written by soldiers, because of education of our youth
in patriotism, because of the great benefits resulting from the conquered peace.
His tribute to the flag, his picture of the home-sick soldier, his recalling of the force of song to the hearts of patriotism, were all in keeping with the occasion and the theme.
His references of the part he took in the
rebellion were modestly presented, and
who had watched the signals day after
exalted his arm of the service. Feel-
General Corse by Sherman, "Hold the Fort for I am Coming," and of the reply, which has never been set to music,
"I'll hold till hell freezes."

signal station at City Point, tall masted
vessels in the mouth of the Appomattox
intercepted all communication with Ber-munda Hundreds, necessitating mooring of the vessels either up or down the
shirt sleeves to the captain of a tug, and
asked him to carry him to the boats to
as to enable them to resume communication. Gruffly the captain spoke: "Who are you?" He told him. Whereupon the
captain turned to General Heintzelman,
who was passing by, and he shall never forget his remark. Said he: "This here
boats moored up the river." The general quietly replied, "You had better do it.
He ranks me at the Point." And so it
soldier he had never met before ap-
him to apply to his officers. No, they wouldn't do anything for him. He told him neither could he. Said he: "I heard what the general said, and I know a fellow that can make them take up anchors can get me a furlough." He had
erected a signal tower, and had him
write the story of his life; of his marriage a couple of weeks before enlistment; of leaving a young wife in care of a couple of old folks; of enlistment of the old man whom he had left in charge of
the farm; of the condition of farm,
fences, etc. He added irreverently a sentence, "For God's sake give this man a furlough." He addressed the envelope
in a bold hand and sent it to Abraham
Washington, D. C. What was his astonishment one day, as soon thereafter as the transport could get from the
lifted off his feet by a man down whose cheeks were streaming tears of joy as he said, "I've got it, I've got it!" and showed him the only furlough he ever
saw signed by President Lincoln.

He told of his experience of attending
church; when he came near being captured by the Johnnies; whilst he was completely so by the smiles of a fair damsel; of the issues of the war, and
related how the ideas of men, regarding
their country's magnitude, had been en-
given a hundred dollars and told to make the best of it. The youth went to
St. Louis, spent his money seeing the
world was as big 'tother way as the way down tew St. Louis, she was a whop-
per."

Eloquently did he speak of conditions,
had matters been reversed; had victory perched on southern arms; of a dismembered republic; of the natural sequence
of the doctrine of state's rights.

picture of the return of the veterans was true to life and enjoyed

by all the boys in blue.

Professor Reed was warmly complimented by old soldiers at the close of
business and professional men, marched
their comrade, glad to greet and honor
in forming his acquaintance.

Comrade Taggart introduced the speaker
a lady was heard to remark: "There are two magnificent specimens of Uncle Sam's volunteer soldiery."

PAID THEIR TAXES.

Two Suits Entered by the Treasurer Were Withdrawn.

LISBON, Dec. 16.—[Special.]—J. S.
Knoll, a Knox township farmer, made
an assignment this morning to W. S.
Potts, who filed bond in the sum of $3,000.

The will of the late Richard Sweat-nam, of East Liverpool, was admitted
in probate today.

Mary A. Wernet, of Hanover, and Amelia H. Arter, of this place, have settled the actions in which they are defendants, and Treasurer Cameron the
the personal taxes for which suit was
Mrs. Arter $143.

The special grand jury began work
this evening.

Two Weddings in the Little Village Today.

Robert Watson and Miss Hattie Tullis, well known people of Park,
of John Lones by Rev. J. V. Finch.
The happy couple will go to housekeeping at once in a home recently built by
the groom.

Miss Rosabell Palmer, of Passadena, Fla., were married at 2 o'clock today at
the residence of the groom's father, W.
H. Crawford, by Rev. J. V. Finch.

ONLY SMOKE

But It Took the Department to the First
M. E. Church.

Doctor Huston this morning saw
smoke issuing from the roof of the First
M. E. church, and gave the alarm. The
department made a good run in spite of
the slippery streets, and the Babcocks
were speedily taken into the building.
There was no work for them as the
smoke came through a crack or two in

East Liverpool People Heard a Good Performance.

A large number of young people from
the city last evening attended the presentation of "A Social Outcast" and
"Little Goldie, or the Child of the Camp," by the Clarkson band. The
plays were well rendered, and were a source of much amusement to those who
heroic part, and did it in a manner that

COLLIDED WITH A TUB.

Burglars Met With Misfortune In a Cook
Street House.

Monday night burglars entered the
kitchen of a Cook street residence, but
accidentally ran into a tub and awakened the household. The lady of the house screamed and her husband got
up and taking his revolver went down stairs, arriving in time to see the thieves

Edward Cook Was Struck by a Piece of Iron.

Edward Cook, while cutting tile at
with a very painful accident. A piece
him in the ball of the left eye. A physician extracted the iron, but it will be
removed.

Legislative Committee of Trades Council
Will Talk Light.

Trades council will meet in regular
session this evening to transact important business. The legislative committee,
to whom the light question was re-
the council will take some action on the matter.

Devising Plans.

Since the dissolution of the eastern
manufacturers' association, the sanitary
whereby a scale of wages can be maintained. They fear competition will re-

HUNTING FOR HIS BOY

B. F. Watkins Has Sought

The Youth Left a Home of Culture and
He Believed It More Manly to Work
Than Attend School.

If Reno Watkins is among the residents of East Liverpool, he should waste
no time in shaking the dust of the city
from his feet, and hastening to his comfortable home in Johnstown, Pa., where
mother mourn him as lost.

old man. His head was bowed, and his
face bore evidences of grief and trouble.
He arrived in the city early in the day,
and visited every boarding house he could
find. But one inquiry was on his lips—
"Does Reno Watkins stop here?" In appearance he was gentlemanly. His clothes were of good material, and he
made enough money in a busy life of
and comfort the remainder of his days.

late manager of an important department in the Johnson works at Johnstown, Pa. A few months ago his son
left home for school, and since that
time has not been seen by any of his family. Mr. Watkins sought in every direction for his son without success.
His description was wired all over the country, and many newspapers have
published appeals from the father. Not long ago he learned that his son had been seen at the Pittsburgh wharf,
and had said he was going down the
river. Monday night Mr. Watkins received a telegram from a friend in Wellsville saying his son was here
under an assumed name. Mr. Watkins
hastened to the city, but could not find
the boy. He had heard he was among the employees of the bridge, but a diligent search failed to reveal his presence.
After hunting in the two towns, Mr.
Watkins left for home today, hoping
by chance hear of his son.

Heard Today.

BEAVER, Dec. 16.—[Special.]—A large number of witnesses, ordered here to
tell what they know about the prosecution of Dr. R. J. Marshall, have been at the court house today, but the case did not come up this morning. At 3 o'clock this afternoon it did not appear that the matter would today advance farther
than the calling of the jury. Mrs. Dawson, the principal witness for the prose-
trial and whose absence caused the last
postponement, will be represented by a
now.

NOT GUILTY.

R. L. Edmonston Says He Can Prove It In Court.

R. L. Edmonston when asked by a News Review man if he would fight the
suit for divorce brought by his wife in Fairfield county replied:

"I am not guilty of the charges preferred against me, and will try to prove it, you can rest assured, when the proper time comes."

Mr. Edmonston has many friends in the city who believe the charges are untrue.

New Kilns.

Two of the new decorating kilns
which will replace those torn down at
the Knowles plant, will be finished tomorrow, and will be in condition for
to be demolished and rebuilt.

the Vodrey pottery will be completed by the end of the week.

Going to Be Married.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Robert Bell and Miss Florence Bell daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
W. H. Streets, of Jethro street. The ceremony will be performed at high noon
on Christmas. The contracting parties are among the best known and most

Quarantined Two Months.

The family of Frank Hoag, who have
been quarantined at their home on Lincoln avenue will probably be released
tomorrow. They were quarantined twice,

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, DEC 16

Mr. BRYAN will lecture in Ohio, but it is safe to say he will not come to East Liverpool.

An ounce of prevention is worth a ton of congressional resolutions in this Cuban matter.

Some farmers are accumulating a little Christmas money by selling their wool at the advance caused by the election.

If Mr. Cleveland was as successful in his statesmanship as he is in shooting ducks, this nation might not be so sorry he ever became president.

The program mapped out by the committee who will frame the tariff law will cause complaint from some directions, particularly the silver south and west.

It is officially announced in Washington that congress has no intention of passing a tariff bill during the short session. A wise conclusion on the part of congress, when it is remembered Mr. Cleveland still owns a veto pen.

The fact that thousands of Hindoos are starving to death because some fiend desires to accumulate a fortune and take rank as a financier does not sound well in this day, when we are prone to boast of the world's advanced civilization.

AFTER exhausting the list of what they call eligible statesmen, and asserting over and over that Major McKinley had chosen the Hon. Mr. Soandso for a portfolio, the newspaper correspondents in Canton have announced that the president to be has not yet formed his cabinet.

SOME over zealous friends of the cause are anxious to have Governor Bushnell declare for Cuba; but while he is a staunch supporter of the patriots, he is right in thinking it would be unseemly for him to anticipate Mr. Cleveland. Thus is Ohio robbed of an opportunity to lead the procession.

THE wave of indignation which swept over the country at the news of General Maceo's murder is finding vent in expressions which the astute politicians of Spain cannot but understand. Will they quietly take the hint and call Butcher Weyler home, or must Uncle Sam begin turning his plowshares into swords?

THE silver men are attempting to organize a mighty legion to be known as the Patriots of America. They will talk silver until the next presidential election, and keep up the agitation in all parts of the country. This is probably a plan of the silver syndicate to have the plain people they pretend to love so dearly, help them bear the expenses of the campaign.

THE CROCKERY TARIFF.

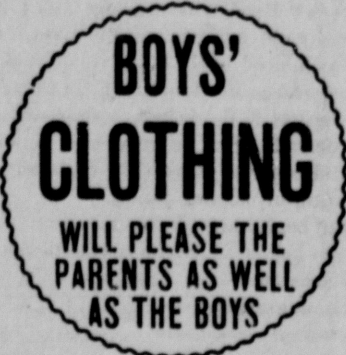

Search as he may, the average man conversant with the needs of the crockery tariff, will be unable to find any reason why the committee of congressmen should not recommend at least the old McKinley duty for the new tariff bill. The importers are more than anxious to have the duty raised because their stocks are large, and they see in increased values made by the new law a fortune; but they have no wish to see it placed at that point where further importations will cost them dear and they will have difficulty in competing in this market. But why should the importers be given any consideration in this matter? They simply represent foreign concerns who have no interest in this country beyond the money they receive from their trade. They are not of our own people; we owe them nothing. They simply come here because it pays to do business on this side of the water. They take money out of the country, and live at our expense. The first duty of congress is to the American potter. He it is who should have everything congress can give. There is no middle course, no dividing with the chaps who have bent their every power in an endeavor to kill American potting.

STIRRED BY POLITICS.

Hot Session of A. F. of L. Convention.

The President of the Waiters' Union, One of Hanna's Lieutenants, Fired on Account of Charges Brought Against Him—Officers May Be Re-Elected.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16.—A number of grievances have been considered by the American Federation of Labor convention, but they are not of interest to the general public.

The executive council disposed of most of the grievances this year before the convention assembled. Most of the agitation is for an effective eight-hour law and the establishment of a defense fund with an assessment of 2 cents per capita, which, with a membership of over 800,000, would secure a large fund. The opposition to the re-election of the present officers is dying out.

The committee on credentials reported its findings on the case of President Pomeroy, of the Waiters' association, without recommendation. The charges of the Illinois State Federation and others were submitted for a final action. A long discussion followed.

While every effort is made to keep politics out of the Federation, there was little but politics in the session. Delegate Weisman, of the Bakers' union, Brooklyn, opened the stormy debate, by charging that Pomeroy had been pursued by the Chicago organization and later by the Illinois Federation, because he worked for the Republicans in the last campaign. And now the fight against Pomeroy, as one of Mark Hanna's men, was carried to the American Federation by political opponents. Delegate Morrison, of the Typographical union, replied, giving a history of Pomeroy in Chicago and of his souvenir contract with the Illinois Federation. He called attention to the campaign document issued last fall by Pomeroy, which he signed as general organizer of the Federation, and for which his commission was revoked by the general officers. Then followed the free-for-all, in which all wanted the floor at the same time, especially the delegates from Chicago. There were strong personal attacks by delegates on each other.

Other stormy speeches followed till Delegate Duncan offered an amendment to the report to accept Pomeroy's credentials and refer his case to the Waiters' union for final action. This brought on more trouble. After several discussed the silver question Delegate Ewing protested against the trial of anyone in his absence, Pomeroy being still confined to his hotel by a sprained ankle.

Chairman O'Sullivan of the committee on credentials favored the Duncan amendment and protested against taxation without representation. He insisted that the Waiters' union paid their dues, were in good standing and should be allowed their duly accredited representative. O'Sullivan said he voted for Bryan and Pomeroy for McKinley, and if Pomeroy had supported Bryan these charges would not have been heard of. This brought dozens to their feet and a hot time followed.

When the previous question was ordered, to shut off the clamor, Delegate Warner said when the committee on credentials went to Pomeroy's room to get the contestee's statement that Pomeroy called the attendant to get his revolver. Out of 2,400 votes only 197 were cast for Duncan's amendment. Then the motion of Morrison, which was the main question, to reject the credentials of Pomeroy, was carried by only 198 dissenting votes out of the total of 2,400, and the report of the committee on credentials was then adopted. There was much jollification over the unseating of Pomeroy, as the vote was an endorsement of the previous action of the general officers and the executive council.

Last night a social session was held with a banquet given by the trades unions of Cincinnati.

OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

A Pension Bill Passed in the Senate by a Vote of 41 to 11.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Besides Cuba other matters were considered in the senate.

The question of passing the bill granting Nancy Allabach a pension, the veto of the president notwithstanding, occasioned considerable debate, but was finally passed over the veto—yeas, 41; nays, 11.

Mr. Allen introduced a resolution for the appointment of a committee of nine senators to investigate the extent to which money was used in the recent presidential election.

WILL PROTECT LAURADA.

The State Department Gives Its Word. U. S. Consul Not Directed to Prevent Her Landing at Valencia, Spain—Taylor Probably Has Instructions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Messrs. Tucker and Seward of Baltimore, representing the Baltimore concern which chartered the Laurada to bring fruit to the United States, and John L. Vandiver, representing Hart & Co. of Philadelphia, the owners of the vessel, have called at the state department to inquire into the report that the Laurada had been prevented from entering the Spanish port of Valencia. They failed to see Secretary Olney or Assistant Secretary Rockhill, but the chief clerk listened to their statements and answered for the department. The shipping men said that they had been informed the Laurada had been forbidden by United States Consul Mertens at Girona, the port of Valencia, to enter the harbor. The chief clerk replied that this was impossible; the department had sent no such instructions to the consul.

Mr. Tucker next asked what the department of state would do if the Laurada entered the port of Valencia and was seized by the Spaniards. The chief clerk assured Mr. Tucker that the Laurada would be afforded the same protection extended to any other American vessel.

It is probable that the state department has been advised by United States Minister Taylor at Madrid of the situation, and he is satisfied to leave the management of the matter to his discretion.

IF YOU HELP CUBA.

The Penalty the Government Can and Will Likely Enforce Against Enlistment and Accepting a Commission Under the Flag of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The attention of officials here has been attracted by the stories coming from all portions of the country indicating that enlistments are going on of parties of men to go to Cuba to join the insurgents in their struggle against the Spaniards. These enlistments are in direct violation of the neutrality laws and are prohibited under severe penalties. For accepting a commission to serve against Spain, a country with which the United States is now at peace, the penalty prescribed by section 5321, revised statutes, is $2,000 fine and three years' imprisonment, while for enlistment to serve against Spain, or hiring anyone to enlist, the penalty is almost as heavy, being a maximum of $1,000 fine and three years' imprisonment.

The enforcement of these laws naturally fall within the functions of the United States officials to whose knowledge the attempt at infringement is brought, but if the movements continue on as large a scale as reported, it is probable that the department of justice will send instructions of a special character to all of its agents calling their attention to the proclamation issued by the president last spring and enjoining upon them a strict enforcement of the neutrality laws.

CALLS U. S. SENATORS LUNATICS.

British Newspaper Comments on the Attacks on Spain.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The Times, commenting on the Cuban situation, expresses the hope that the Spaniards will "continue to disregard the vituperation of the jingo senators and abstain from imitating them," adding, "the American government maintains a correct and neutral attitude and as long as it does Spain can afford to smile at Senator Chandler's offhand recognition of Cuban republic."

The Globe says: "When these wild men rave at England, British feeling regards them as amusing lunatics whose grotesque antics do not carry danger to either country. But the Spaniards are more easily inflamed to anger and there is some danger of Spain falling into the trap when the piratical Laurada reaches Valencia. Spain has endured much contumely from the great republic; but there are many indications that this passive submission to insult will not last much longer. It would be well, therefore, for the Washington government to place restraint upon Senator Chandler and his colleagues. If Spain decided to uphold her honor by arms a naval war might have results not at all agreeable to the American chauvinists."

DISCONTENT WITH WEYLER.

He Is Jealous of Major Cárjeda—May Be Recalled.

MADRID, Dec. 16.—According to surface indications, Captain General Weyler will soon be relieved of his command in Cuba. The discontent with Weyler is noticeable, even in the government organs. They say that instead of going to Havana to receive an unmerited ovation, he ought to have continued the military operations in the province of Pinar del Rio.

A bad impression has also been created here by the dispatches of the Spanish correspondents at Havana announcing that General Weyler has suppressed all dispatches referring to the operations in Spain in honor of Major Cárjeda. It is supposed the captain general's action was due to jealousy and it is currently reported that the government is disposed to replace Weyler by General Marin, now governor of the Cuban province of Puerto Rico.

HOT SHOTS FOR CUBA.

A Spanish flag was burned at a public meeting in Lexington, Ky.

Resolutions of sympathy for Cuba were passed by the Chattanooga city councils. Mexico is wild over a report that a Spanish mob assaulted the Mexican consul at Barcelona for sympathizing with Cuba.

Frank Mayer, a Virginian survivor, will head a Cuban sympathy parade in New York, Monday evening.

St. Mark's Lyceum (religious), New York, will hold a Cuban sympathy mass-meeting Friday evening.

A big Cuban mass-meeting was held in Jersey City.

Cuban sympathizers of Jacksonville, Fla., held a big torchlight procession.

The offices of the Cuban junta at New York are besieged by applicants for enlistment.

St. Paul physicians are subscribing money to buy medicine for the Cubans.

The program mapped out by the committee who will frame the tariff law will cause complaint from some directions, particularly the silver south and west.

It is officially announced in Washington that congress has no intention of passing a tariff bill during the short session. A wise conclusion on the part of congress, when it is remembered Mr. Cleveland still owns a veto pen.

The fact that thousands of Hindus are starving to death because some fiend desires to accumulate a fortune and take rank as a financier does not sound well in this day, when we are prone to boast of the world's advanced civilization.

AFTER exhausting the list of what they call eligible statesmen, and asserting over and over that Major McKinley had chosen the Hon. Mr. Soandso for a portfolio, the newspaper correspondents in Canton have announced that the president to be has not yet formed his cabinet.

SOME over zealous friends of the cause are anxious to have Governor Bushnell declare for Cuba; but while he is a staunch supporter of the patriots, he is right in thinking it would be unseemly for him to anticipate Mr. Cleveland. Thus is Ohio robbed of an opportunity to lead the procession.

THE wave of indignation which swept over the country at the news of General Maceo's murder is finding vent in expressions of the astute politicians of Spain cannot but understand. Will they quietly take the hint and call Butcher Weyler home, or must Uncle Sam begin turning his plowshares into swords?

The silver men are attempting to organize a mighty legion to be known as the Patriots of America. They will talk silver until the next presidential election, and keep up the agitation in all parts of the country. This is probably a plan of the silver syndicate to have the plain people they pretend to love so dearly, help them bear the expenses of the campaign.

THE CROCKERY TARIFF.

Search as he may, the average man conversant with the needs of the crockery tariff, will be unable to find any reason why the committee of congressmen should not recommend at least the old McKinley duty for the new tariff bill. The importers are more than anxious to have the duty raised because their stocks are large, and they see in increased values made by the new law a fortune; but they have no wish to see it placed at that point where further importations will cost them dear and they will have difficulty in competing in this market. But why should the importers be given any consideration in this matter? They simply represent "foreign concerns who have no interest in this country beyond the money they receive from their trade. They are not of our own people; we owe them nothing. They simply come here because it pays to do business on this side of the water. They take money out of the country, and live at our expense. The first duty of congress is to the American potter. He it is who should have everything congress can give. There is no middle course, no dividing with the chaps who have bent their every power in an endeavor to kill American potting.

STIRRED BY POLITICS.

Hot Session of A. F. of L. Convention.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16.—A number of grievances have been considered by the American Federation of Labor convention, but they are not of interest to the general public.

The executive council disposed of most of the grievances this year before the convention assembled. Most of the agitation is for an effective eight-hour law and the establishment of a defense fund with an assessment of 2 cents per capita, which, with a membership of over 600,000, would secure a large fund. The opposition to the re-election of the present officers is dying out.

The committee on credentials reported its finding on the case of President Pomeroy, of the Waiters' association, without recommendation. The charges of the Illinois State Federation and others were submitted for a final action. A long discussion followed.

While every effort is made to keep politics out of the Federation, there was little but politics in the session. Delegate Weisman, of the Bakers' union, Brooklyn, opened the stormy debate, by charging that Pomeroy had been pursued by the Chicago organization and later by the Illinois Federation, because he worked for the Republicans in the last campaign. And now the fight against Pomeroy, as one of Mark Hanna's men, was carried to the American Federation by political opponents. Delegate Morrison, of the Typographical union, replied, giving a history of Pomeroy in Chicago and of his souvenir contract with the Illinois Federation. He called attention to the campaign document issued last fall by Pomeroy, which he signed as general organizer of the Federation, and for which his commission was revoked by the general officers. Then followed the free-for-all, in which all wanted the floor at the same time, especially the delegates from Chicago. There were strong personal attacks by delegates on each other.

Other stormy speeches followed till Delegate Duncan offered an amendment to the report to accept Pomeroy's credentials and refer his case to the Waiters' union for final action. This brought on more trouble. After several discussed the silver question Delegate Ewing protested against the trial of anyone in his absence, Pomeroy being still confined to his hotel by a sprained ankle.

Chairman O'Sullivan of the committee on credentials favored the Duncan amendment and protested against taxation without representation. He insisted that the Waiters' union paid their dues, were in good standing and should be allowed their duly accredited representative. O'Sullivan said he voted for Bryan and Pomeroy for McKinley, and if Pomeroy had supported Bryan these charges would not have been heard of. This brought dozens to their feet and a hot time followed.

When the previous question was ordered, to shut off the clamor, Delegate Warner said when the committee on credentials went to Pomeroy's room to get the contestee's statement that Pomeroy called the attendant to get his revolver. Out of 2,400 votes only 197 were cast for Duncan's amendment. Then the motion of Morrison, which was the main question, to reject the credentials of Pomeroy, was carried by only 198 dissenting votes out of the total of 2,400, and the report of the committee on credentials was then adopted. There was much jollification over the unseating of Pomeroy, as the vote was an endorsement of the previous action of the general officers and the executive council.

OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

A Pension Bill Passed in the Senate by a Vote of 41 to 11.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Besides Cuba other matters were considered in the senate.

The question of passing the bill granting Nancy Allabach a pension, the veto of the president notwithstanding, occasioned considerable debate, but was finally passed over the veto—yeas, 41; nays, 11.

Mr. Allen introduced a resolution for the appointment of a committee of nine senators to investigate the extent to which money was used in the recent presidential election.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Messrs. Tucker and Seward of Baltimore, representing the Baltimore concern which chartered the Laurada to bring fruit to the United States, and John L. Vandiver, representing Hart & Co. of Philadelphia, the owners of the vessel, have called at the state department to inquire into the report that the Laurada had been prevented from entering the Spanish port of Valencia. They failed to see Secretary Olney or Assistant Secretary Rockhill, but the chief clerk listened to their statements and answered for the department. The shipping men said that they had been informed the Laurada had been forbidden by United States Consul Mertens at Grao, the port of Valencia, to enter the harbor. The chief clerk replied that this was impossible; the department had sent no such instructions to the consul.

Mr. Tucker next asked what the department of state would do if the Laurada entered the port of Valencia and was seized by the Spaniards. The chief clerk assured Mr. Tucker that the Laurada would be afforded the same protection extended to any other American vessel.

It is probable that the state department has been advised by United States Minister Taylor at Madrid of the situation, and he is satisfied to leave the management of the matter to his discretion.

IF YOU HELP CUBA.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The attention of officials here has been attracted by the stories coming from all portions of the country indicating that enlistments are going on of parties of men to go to Cuba to join the insurgents in their struggle against the Spaniards. These enlistments are in direct violation of the neutrality laws and are prohibited under severe penalties. For accepting a commission to serve against Spain, a country with which the United States is now at peace, the penalty prescribed by section 5321, revised statutes, is $2,000 fine and three years' imprisonment, while for enlistment to serve against Spain, or hiring anyone to enlist, the penalty is almost as heavy, being a maximum of $1,000 fine and three years' imprisonment.

The enforcement of these laws naturally fall within the functions of the United States officials to whose knowledge the attempt at infringement is brought, but if the movements continue on as large a scale as reported, it is probable that the department of justice will send instructions of a special character to all of its agents calling their attention to the proclamation issued by the president last spring and enjoining upon them a strict enforcement of the neutrality laws.

CALLS U. S. SENATORS LUNATICS.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The Times, commenting on the Cuban situation, expresses the hope that the Spaniards will "continue to disregard the vituperation of the jingo senators and abstain from imitating them," adding, "the American government maintains a correct and neutral attitude and as long as it does Spain can afford to smile at Senator Chandler's offhand recognition of Cuban republic."

The Globe says: "When these wild men rave at England, British feeling regards them as amusing lunatics whose grotesque antics do not carry danger to either country. But the Spaniards are more easily inflamed to anger and there is some danger of Spain falling into the trap when the piratical Laurada reaches Valencia. Spain has endured much contumely from the great republic; but there are many indications that this passive submission to insult will not last much longer. It would be well, therefore, for the Washington government to place restraint upon Senator Chandler and his colleagues. If Spain decided to uphold her honor by arms a naval war might have results not at all agreeable to the American chauvinists."

DISCONTENT WITH WEYLER.

He Is Jealous of Major Cirujeda—May Be Recalled.

MADRID, Dec. 16.—According to surface indications, Captain General Weyler will soon be relieved of his command in Cuba. The discontent with Weyler is noticeable, even in the government organs. They say that instead of going to Havana to receive an unmerited ovation, he ought to have continued the military operations in the province of Pinar del Rio.

A bad impression has also been created here by the dispatches of the Spanish correspondents at Havana announcing that General Weyler has suppressed all dispatches referring to the ovations in Spain in honor of Major Cirujeda. It is supposed the captain general's action was due to jealousy and it is currently reported that the government is disposed to replace Weyler by General Marin, now governor of the Cuban province of Puerto Rico.

HOT SHOTS FOR CUBA.

A Spanish flag was burned at a public meeting in Lexington, Ky.

Resolutions of sympathy for Cuba were passed by the Chattanooga city council. Mexico is wild over a report that a Spanish mob assaulted the Mexican consul at Barcelona for sympathizing with Cuba.

Frank Mayer, a Virginian survivor, will head a Cuban sympathy parade in New York, Monday evening.

St. Mark's Lyceum (religious), New York, will hold a Cuban sympathy mass-meeting Friday evening.

A big Cuban mass-meeting was held in Jersey City.

The offices of the Cuban junta at New York are besieged by applicants for enlistment.

St. Paul physicians are subscribing money to buy medicine for the Cubans.

WANT TO COMPROMISE

NO TROUBLE IS ANTICIPATED

Solicitor Grosshans and Engineer George Had a Pleasant Chat With Cleveland and Pittsburgh Attorneys, and the Sewer Matter Will Be Settled.

Unless some complication appears to mar the peace of the present, the railroad company and the city will have no difficulty in adjusting the differences arising over the construction of a sewer in West End.

Solicitor Grosshans and Engineer George returned this morning from Youngstown, where they had a conference with Attorneys Carey and Boyle, representing the Pennsylvania company. They discussed the matter for some time, and decided to arrange for an early meeting of representatives of the company and council, when it is believed action will be taken which will not only satisfy the company, but will not cause the city loss. There seems to have been a misunderstanding on the part of the company in believing the sewer would be an obstruction if they ever desired to use the ground for track purposes. The meeting will be held as soon as possible, and until the conference has taken place no action will be taken by the city to resist the injunction granted the company last week.

A WARM PLACE,
But the Police Would Not Allow Martin to Stay There.

Last evening about 10 o'clock Officers McMillan and Terrence were called to the light plant to remove a man who had crawled on top of the boilers to spend the night. When ordered to leave the premises he refused to go, and the officers were summoned. The fellow was arrested and taken to city hall. This morning before the mayor he said his name was Martin Mangan and his home Rochester. He was fined $5, and not having the wherewithal, is still in jail.

OBSERVER OBJECTS.

She Finds a Little Work for the Humane Society.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I think the Humane society could find abundant work if the officers and members would only look around. 'Tis shameful the manner in which horses are compelled to draw heavy loads. Let merciful citizens prosecute these merciless men. I wish I was a man. OBSERVER.

THE HORSE WENT DOWN

It Could Not Stand a Heavy Charge of Electricity.

A Workman on a Pole Dropped a Wire on the Street Railway System, and at Once There Was Danger All Around—The Horse Not Hurt.

It took a few minutes of noon when a lineman was at work on a pole near Fourth street. He was arranging the wires of the patrol system, when one broke and fell. In dropping it caught on the cross wires supporting the trolley line of the street railway, and at once there was trouble. The wire touched a horse belonging to W. H. Adams, and the heavy charge from the street railway system tumbled the poor animal in the street. It was shocked so it could not rise, but the cause of the trouble was removed, and the horse was found to be little the worse.

Parties who saw the wire fall at once began ducking their heads as though they feared others would come down. A serious accident will someday happen if circuit breakers are not put in place.

There was confusion at the telephone exchange when the line dropped. A few fuses were burned out, and the place filled with smoke. Three telephones were rendered useless.

Persian Tears.

A physician who has just returned from a visit to Persia says that the Persians still believe that human tears are a remedy for certain chronic diseases. At every funeral the bottling of mourners' tears is one of the chief features of the ceremonies. Each of the mourners is presented with a sponge with which to mop off his face and eyes, and after the burial they are presented to the priest, who squeezes the tears into bottles, which he keeps. This custom is one of the oldest known in the east and has probably been practiced by the Persians for thousands of years. Mention is made of it in the Old Testament.

Grand Meetings.

The meetings being held each night at the Methodist Protestant church are deeply interesting. Mrs. Trego is evidently accomplishing great good. She is intensely earnest, and probes deep, but at no time becomes harsh in her remarks. She is a firm believer in the every day Christian—in carrying your Christianity into your home life, into your business life, and upon the streets. Go and hear this grand woman. You will be cordially welcomed.

GOING TO VENEZUELA.

The Little Steamer Elsa Taking Ohio Young Men There.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16.—The destination of the little steamer Elsa, which was seized by the government authorities at Memphis on suspicion that she was on a filibustering expedition, is Venezuela. Several years ago two young men left Norwalk, O., and went to South America. After many vicissitudes one of them returned home.

About a month ago he received a letter from his comrade saying that he had discovered gold in mountains near the coast in the territory in dispute between England and Venezuela. Assisted by two natives and a donkey he had mined some of the gold and sent it to a New York bank. The prospector asked his friend to draw on the New York bank, buy a small steamer and bring it to Venezuela.

This tale was doubted, but a letter to the bank in New York confirmed the story. The steamer Elsa was bought at Sandusky and a party of seven young men made up, one of them being a son of G. W. Buswell of this city. The boat was taken to Chicago and refitted and the Mississippi reached by canal and river. The Elsa and her party will reach New Orleans on Saturday.

ONE CONVICT CAPTURED.

Three Escaped From the State Reformatory at Mansfield.

MANSFIELD, O., Dec. 16.—Oliver Cromwell of Lucas county, Charles Wherry of Franklin county and Joseph Dunn of Erie county escaped from the Ohio reformatory here. They were engaged in whitewashing in the basement adjoining the administration kitchen.

They tried off a bar from a window on the east side of the building by means of a board. They ran along an unfinished wing and thence out a country road. They were discovered by a guard and at once pursued by a detachment of guards and a pair of bloodhounds from Kenton. Dunn was afterwards captured by a guard.

Will Fight Bellaire Company.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16.—An agent of the Illinois Steel company in an interview in this city, states that the steel pool will soon be on its feet again. The plan is to then make it hot for the Bellaire company, that disrupted the pool by withdrawing and cutting prices. The agent said that as soon as the pool was once more in working order the members in the territory of the Bellaire company would sell steel below cost if necessary to freeze that concern out, the losses being made good by the pool treasury.

Perjured Witnesses Sentenced.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16.—John Seward and William Truste, witnesses in the Bryan murder case who were convicted of false swearing, have been sentenced in Newport, Ky. Seward was given two years and Truste one year in the Kentucky penitentiary. They attempted to make the jurors believe that Pearl Byrne was beheaded on the Ohio side of the river and conveyed to Fort Thomas afterward.

Convict Tierney Will Live.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Governor Bushnell has commuted the sentence of Frank Tierney, who was to have been executed tomorrow morning to imprisonment for life. Tierney was convicted of shooting and killing Frank Hupman, a fellow tramp, in a boxcar near Cuba, May 25, 1896. Governor Bushnell thought there was sufficient doubt of Tierney's guilt to warrant commutation.

THE COMPETITOR CASE.

Denied at Havana That Execution of Prisoners Is Near.

HAVANA, Dec. 16.—The second trial of the crew of the American schooner Competitor, captured on April 29 last, by a Spanish gunboat while apparently landing a filibustering expedition on the coast of Cuba is still in its preliminary stages and consequently, according to Spanish law, the proceedings are yet private. It is expected that the case will shortly pass into open court when all the features of the case will be made public.

The stories circulated in the United States of the secret trial, sentence and approaching execution of the prisoners are wholly false.

BUFFALO, Dec. 16.—Abraham C. Abrams, keeper of the jail, Detective James Doran, chief officer, F. R. Humphreys, Detective Charles I. Dolson and Detective Robert E. Smith, all of Cleveland, are here contesting for the $500 reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of the late Montgomery Gibbs.

A WAR IS WELCOME.

Says Morgan, If Needed to Protect Americans in Cuba.

CUBAN HORRORS DEPICTED.

The Senator Advocated Strong and Decisive Action in Dealing With the Cuban Question—Resolution Adopted Asking For Important Information.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Cuba continues to be the most live topic in congressional circles.

Senator Morgan of Alabama held the attention of the senate and well filled galleries for an hour by his earnest advocacy of a strong and decisive policy in dealing with the Cuban question. The prominence of Mr. Morgan in the Cuban debate of last session, when he had charge of the Cuban resolutions reported from the committee on foreign relations, gave special interest to his speech.

He spoke in impassioned style, although his words had a directness and severity in picturing the horrors existing in Cuba, such as is seldom heard in the senate. Mr. Morgan spoke freely of the possibilities of war, welcoming it if necessary to guarantee the protection of American citizens. He asserted that Spain's bankruptcy would prevent the collection of any indemnity for wrongs. The senator questioned the wisdom of the president's position that the granting of belligerent rights would be "untimely." Mr. Morgan's views on the line of action which should be adopted was summed up in the following:

Although I believe that belligerent rights should be accorded the Cubans, inasmuch as the president prefers a more coercive policy and warns Spain that the time is near at hand for decisive action, I will support him in any movement that will save our people on that island from further outrage; I will not obstruct his course with questions of propriety, but I will follow the colors when planted by the president on the advanced ground that the concession of belligerent rights has become "untimely" and that our duty now demands active intervention. If that position that a just case for our own people requires us to declare an armed neutrality, ready to assail either belligerent that inflicts wrongs on our own people, if the president should say "the time has arrived, the hour has struck," would any American be so base as not to hold up his hands while the battle was raging?

I will confine my remarks to comments upon the facts stated in the recent annual message of the president and the report of the secretary of state. I am not able to discover that the president has made any specific recommendations or indication as to any action he deems it proper or expedient for congress to take with reference to Spain or Cuba; nor that he has indicated any course, except a still patient waiting, that the executive proposes to take. Congress, thus left to its own initiative, must assume its own responsibility in a matter of the most serious gravity.

Congress must give to the statements of the president unhesitating acceptance as to matters that were committed by him to the executive branch of government. When constitution to state the facts that affect our relations with other powers we must accept these facts, unless the disproof of them is overpowering.

This message is therefore of the most important importance, as a statement of the leading facts and conclusions that bear upon our duties in respect to the conflict of arms which has raged for over two years in the island of Cuba, and it has the support of nearly all American beliefs. I have not heard that Spain controverts any statement of the president in his message.

The evidence that comes from private sources relative to the civil war in Cuba and the horrors of persecution, rapine and extermination visited upon the people of Cuba admits of no doubt as to its credibility. Yet it presents pictures so incredibly inhuman and so disgraceful to the civilization of this age that it stuns the mind into disbelief that such things can be true.

Mr. Morgan went on to speak of the trying situation, which required prompt action to save thousands of innocent people from cruel and deliberate butchery. The wholesale massacres of Spain was no surprise to the senator, who had anticipated it. Then he said:

If war with the United States is necessary to reconcile the Spanish people to the loss of Cuba by foreign conquest, said Mr. Morgan, we shall be compelled to meet that emergency. If the destruction of Cuba is enough to satisfy the popular sentiment of revenge, we can avoid a war with Spain by remaining inactive, while our own people are being ruined or slaughtered along with the Cubans. If we mean to take any action toward stopping the war of anarchy and the extermination we have no time to lose.

Mr. Morgan spoke of the resolution of congress at the last session, which he said left to the president the choice of concurring with the policy of congress or delaying. The president chose delay. The war has continued, said Mr. Morgan, until it has reached the final and desperate stage of a war of devastation and extermination, with the people of Cuba as a prey to those who have set aside the usual honorable usages of warfare, "and have become robbers, cutthroats, assassins, ravishers and pirates."

Mr. Morgan spoke of the necessity for protecting our citizens abroad. Referring to Turkey he expressed the hope that the policy of this government should not be relaxed and that we would not much longer hear of these Turkish offenses against humanity.

At the close of Mr. Morgan's speech his resolution was adopted requesting the secretary of state for papers and information relative to the Competitor prisoners and other American citizens held in Cuba by the Spanish authorities.

Representative Woodman of Illinois has introduced a joint resolution directing the president to intervene in Cuban affairs. The resolution, after reciting General Maceo's assassination and Spanish cruelties in Cuba, says that the president has failed to carry out the wishes of the people; that the honor of the United States is at stake and that history gives no precedent on which to base a hope that Spanish operators will change to compliance with civilized warfare. The president is directed to express severe condemnation of the Spanish methods of warfare, especially the murder of Maceo; to recognize the independence of Cuba and to demand of Spain the withdrawal of all troops from Cuban soil. He is also directed to take proper steps to see that this demand is carried out.

NO TROUBLE IS ANTICIPATED

Solicitor Grosshans and Engineer George Had a Pleasant Chat With Cleveland and Pittsburgh Attorneys, and the Sewer Matter Will Be Settled.

Unless some complication appears to mar the peace of the present, the railroad company and the city will have no difficulty in adjusting the differences arising over the construction of a sewer in West End.

Solicitor Grosshans and Engineer George returned this morning from Youngstown, where they had a conference with Attorneys Carey and Boyle, representing the Pennsylvania company. They discussed the matter for some time, and decided to arrange for an early meeting of representatives of the company and council, when it is believed action will be taken which will not only satisfy the company, but will not cause the city loss. There seems to have been a misunderstanding on the part of the company in believing the sewer would be an obstruction if they ever desired to use the ground for track purposes. The meeting will be held as soon as possible, and until the conference has taken place no action will be taken by the city to resist the injunction granted the company last week.

This morning before the mayor he said his name was Martin Mangan and his home Rochester. He was fined $6, and not having the wherewithal, is still in jail.

THE HORSE WENT DOWN

A Workman on a Pole Dropped a Wire on the Street Railway System, and at Once There Was Danger All Around—The Horse Not Hurt.

A heavy charge of electricity knocked down a horse on Washington street this morning, and pedestrians unconsciously ducked their heads as they thought of other wires which might by accident fall.

It took a few minutes of noon when a lineman was at work on a pole near Fourth street. He was arranging the wires of the patrol system, when one broke and fell. In dropping it caught on the cross wires supporting the trolley line of the street railway, and at once there was trouble. The wire touched a horse belonging to W. H. Adams, and the heavy charge from the street railway system tumbled the poor animal in the street. It was shocked so it could not rise, but the cause of the trouble was removed, and the horse was found to be little the worse.

Parties who saw the wire fall at once began ducking their heads as though they feared others would come down. A serious accident will someday happen if circuit breakers are not put in place. There was confusion at the telephone exchange when the line dropped. A few fuses were burned out, and the place filled with smoke. Three telephones were rendered useless.

Persian Tears.

GOING TO VENEZUELA.

The Little Steamer Elsa Taking Ohio Young Men There.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16.—The destination of the little steamer Elsa, which was seized by the government authorities at Memphis on suspicion that she was on a filibustering expedition, is Venezuela. Several years ago two young men left Norwalk, O., and went to South America. After many vicissitudes one of them returned home.

About a month ago he received a letter from his comrade saying that he had discovered gold in mountains near the coast in the territory in dispute between England and Venezuela. He had mined some of the gold and sent it to a New York bank. The prospector asked his friend to draw on the New York bank, buy a small steamer and bring it to Venezuela.

This tale was doubted, but a letter to the bank in New York confirmed the story. The steamer Elsa was bought at Sandusky and a party of seven young men made up, one of them being a son of G. W. Buswell of this city. The boat was taken to Chicago and refitted and the Mississippi reached by canal and river. The Elsa and her party will reach New Orleans on Saturday.

ONE CONVICT CAPTURED.

Three Escaped From the State Reformatory at Mansfield.

MANSFIELD, O., Dec. 16.—Oliver Cromwell of Lucas county, Charles Wherry of Franklin county and Joseph Dunn of Erie county escaped from the Ohio reformatory here. They were engaged in whitewashing in the store-room adjoining the administration kitchen.

They pried off a bar from a window on the east side of the building by means of a board. They ran along an unfinished roof and thence out a country road. They were discovered by a guard and at once pursued by a detachment of guards and a pair of bloodhounds from Kenton. Dunn was afterwards captured by a guard.

Will Fight Bellaire Company.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16.—An agent of the Illinois Steel company in an interview in this city, states that the steel pool will soon be on its feet again. The plan is to make it hot for the Bellaire company, that disrupted the pool by withdrawing and cutting prices. The agent said that as soon as the pool was once more in working order the members in the territory of the Bellaire company would sell steel below cost if necessary to freeze that concern out, the losses being made good by the pool treasury.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16.—John Seward and William Truette, witnesses in the Bryan murder case who were convicted of false swearing, have been sentenced in Newport, Ky. Seward was given two years and Truette one year in the Kentucky penitentiary. They attempted to make the jurors believe that Pearl Bryan was beheaded on the Ohio side of the river and conveyed to Fort Thomas afterwards.

Convict Tierney Will Live.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 16.—Governor Bushnell has commuted the sentence of Frank Tierney, who was to have been executed tomorrow morning to imprisonment for life. Tierney was convicted of shooting and killing Frank Hupman, a fellow tramp, in a boxcar near Huron, May 25, 1896. Governor Bushnell thought there was sufficient doubt of Tierney's guilt to warrant commutation.

It is expected that the case will shortly pass into open court when all the features of the case will be made public.

A WAR IS WELCOME.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Cuba continues to be the most live topic in congressional circles.

Senator Morgan of Alabama held the attention of the senate and well filled galleries for an hour by his earnest advocacy of a strong and decisive policy in dealing with the Cuban question. The prominence of Mr. Morgan in the Cuban debate of last session, when he had charge of the Cuban resolutions reported from the committee on foreign relations, gave special interest to his speech.

He spoke in dispassionate style, although his words had a directness and severity in picturing the horrors existing in Cuba, such as is seldom heard in the senate. Mr. Morgan spoke freely of the possibilities of war, welcoming it if necessary to guarantee the protection of American citizens. He asserted that Spain's bankruptcy would prevent the collection of any indemnity for wrongs. The senator questioned the wisdom of the president's position that the granting of belligerent rights would be "untimely." Mr. Morgan's views on the line of action which should be adopted was summed up in the following:

Although I believe that belligerent rights should be accorded the Cubans, inasmuch as the president prefers a more coercive policy and warns Spain that the time is near at hand for decisive action, I will support him in any movement that will save our people on that island from further outrage; I will not obstruct his course with questions of propriety, but will follow the colors when planted by the president on the advanced ground that the concession of belligerent rights has become "untimely" and that our duty now is to demand active intervention. If that position that I will again fall back to people requires us to declare an armed neutrality, ready to assail either belligerent with our arms, I will support it. If the president should say "the time has arrived, the hour has struck," would any American be so base as not to hold up his hands while the battle was raging?

I will confine my remarks to comments upon the facts stated in the recent annual message of the president and the report of the secretary of state. I am not able to discover that the president has made any specific recommendation, and I am not able to find that he deems it proper or expedient for congress to take with reference to Spain or Cuba; nor that he has indicated any course, except a still patient waiting, that the executive proposes to take. Congress, in its own responsibility, must assume its own responsibility in a matter of the most serious gravity.

Congress must give to the statements of the president unhesitating acceptance as to matters that were committed by the constitution to his special charge. When he undertakes to state the facts that affect our relations with other powers, we must accept his statement, unless the disproof of them is overpowering.

This message is therefore of the most impressive importance, as a statement of the leading facts and conclusions in respect to the conflict upon our duties in respect to the conflict of arms which has raged for over two years in the island of Cuba, and it has the support of nearly all American beliefs. I have not heard that Spain converts any statement of the president in his message. The evidence that comes from private sources relative to the condition of Cuba and the horrors of persecution, rapine and extermination visited upon the people of Cuba admits of no doubt as to its credibility. Yet it presents pictures so incredibly inhuman and so disgraceful to the civilization of this age that it stuns the mind into disbelief that such things can be true.

If we mean to take any action toward stopping this war of annihilation and extermination we have no time to lose.

Mr. Morgan spoke of the resolution of congress at the last session, which he said left to the president the choice of concurring with the policy of congress or delaying. The president chose delay. The war has continued, said Mr. Morgan, until it has reached the final and desperate stage of a war of devastation and extermination, with the people of Cuba as a prey to those who have set aside the usual honorable usages of warfare, and have become robbers, cutthroats, assassins, ravishers and pirates.

Mr. Morgan spoke of the necessity for protecting our citizens abroad. Referring to Turkey he expressed the hope that the policy of this government should not be relaxed and that we would not much longer hear of these Turkish offenses against humanity.

At the close of Mr. Morgan's speech his resolution was adopted, requesting the secretary of state for papers and information relative to the Competitor prisoners and other American citizens held in Cuba by the Spanish authorities.

Representative Woodman of Illinois has introduced a joint resolution directing the president to intervene in Cuban affairs. A MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

The Grand Jury Investigating Hoodling Charges at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—Minneapolis is apparently on the work of a municipal scandal sensation. The announcement that a warrant is out for the arrest of City Clerk Charles E. Haney and that Haney is on his way to Mexico by devious routes is received by astonishment. The charge is bribery in connection with city fuel contracts.

He left very suddenly last Friday night and although the local authorities have made every effort to arrest him before he crosses the border, they have not yet succeeded. The grand jury is now in session and is investigating a number of aldermen charged with hoodling in paving, sewer and other contracts.

It has leaked out that at least two indictments have been found and some 30 others are promised. The evidence has been gathered by Chicago detectives under the direction of certain members of the Good Citizenship League. Among the charges made is one that the ballot boxes in the Eleventh ward were tampered with to secure the election of the alderman favorable to the combine. The contest over this seat is still in progress.
